Molonglo Catchment Group Vision 2015: A healthy and sustainable Vision environment treasured by the entire catchment community Connected diverse healthy Community that understands NRM based on integration Healthy Lake Burley Griffin Aspirational landscape + sustainable of western science and and values our local and AUSRIVAS score >B for Goal food supply Aboriginal knowledge broader environment supply reaches Increased extent, connectivity & Adoption of best-practice Improved river health Protection of + Viable & resilient condition of native vegetation NRM increased (DO + macroinverts, Long-term managed for culture + biodiversity improving soil health (MCG + Landcare surveys, % communities (Regional outcomes km of restored riparian (Veg + fauna surveys, no of new of MCG projects adopting (P, turbidity, EC, pH) Well-being Survey) vegetation) habitat patches, no of new links) cultural protocol) Jerrabomberra Creek Upper Molonglo Riparian Reedy Creek New Queanbeyan New Burra Pigs & Erosion Connectivity Project Restoration + Connectivity Project Project Intermediate Sullivans Woody Weeds Woolshed Hydrology LBG Ngunawal outcomes Landscape Repair Connectivity and Connectivity (Programs) Lower Molonglo Riparian Revegetation Advocacy: Water sensitive urban design, Planning submissions, Cultural knowledge Immediate Action Tools: Mulching, Fire, Weeding, Fencing, Planting, Harvesting, Controlling, Cultivating, Erosion works, Native pastures, Carbon farming, activities Education: Walks & Talks, Art, Place Stories, QuestaBird, Events, Land for Wildlife, Schools visits. (Projects) Planning, Research, Partnership, Resourcing and Reviewing activities (Committee, Member Group liaison, Administration, Work Health Safety, Strategy, Foundational Volunteer management, Business Plan, Finance, Library, Enterprise Development, Communications, Records, Reporting, Waterwatch & Vegwatch) activities